

International Visit from the Lebanon.

Brian Stobie from Durham County International office visited school with 2 Lebanese teachers who wanted to find out about special education in the UK. They met all classes and presented the school with a bronze shield as a memento of their visit.

